

Sweet Sushi

Bases:

- ✂ Powdered sugar donuts (halved)
- ✂ Rice Krispie® treats (store-bought bars can be cut in thirds)
- ✂ Twinkies® (cut off ends and halve or third; these cut best frozen to keep them from oozing)

Toppings:

- ✂ Swedish or other gummy fish
- ✂ Nerds®
- ✂ Gummy Worms (1/2'd)
- ✂ Fruit by the Foot® or other greenish fruit leather in strips for wrapping
- ✂ Sour gummy worms
- ✂ Fruit laces for tying on
- ✂ Mini M&Ms®

Sweet Sushi

Bases:

- ✂ Powdered sugar donuts (halved)
- ✂ Rice Krispie® treats (store-bought bars can be cut in thirds)
- ✂ Twinkies® (cut off ends and halve or third; these cut best frozen to keep them from oozing)

Toppings:

- ✂ Swedish or other gummy fish
- ✂ Nerds®
- ✂ Gummy Worms (1/2'd)
- ✂ Fruit by the Foot® or other greenish fruit leather in strips for wrapping
- ✂ Sour gummy worms
- ✂ Fruit laces for tying on
- ✂ Mini M&Ms®

These treats tend to be more fun to make than eat, but they look great! I used them for a special summer addition to our monthly Animé Club. Be sure to have examples made to start the creative process.

Note¹: Green fruit leather is tough to find. I bought tropical packs and used the green only. I've found round, real fruit leather, but it's more expensive and more work to prep.

Note²: Twinkies[®] are easiest to cut when frozen so they don't ooze. Be sure to cut the ends off so that they lay flat and have a flat surface to lay on.

Note³: Check your local $1 store for supplies. I've found the movie theater-size Nerds[®] there.

www.candywarehouse.com/candyanimals : If you're ordering a large group, this site has some fun candies to choose from. Gummy Octupuses, Gummi Clown Fish, etc.

<http://www.notmartha.org/tomake/hostesssushi> : There are more ideas at this site. Great color photos too.

<http://jas.familyfun.go.com/crafts?page=CraftDisplay&craftid=10096> : Nice instructions and visual including a video if you like.

*K'Lyn Hann, Newberg Public Library, klyn.hann@ci.newberg.or.us
for OYAN's Teen Programing Showcase OLA 2007*

These treats tend to be more fun to make than eat, but they look great! I used them for a special summer addition to our monthly Animé Club. Be sure to have examples made to start the creative process.

Note¹: Green fruit leather is tough to find. I bought tropical packs and used the green only. I've found round, real fruit leather, but it's more expensive and more work to prep.

Note²: Twinkies[®] are easiest to cut when frozen so they don't ooze. Be sure to cut the ends off so that they lay flat and have a flat surface to lay on.

Note³: Check your local $1 store for supplies. I've found the movie theater-size Nerds[®] there.

www.candywarehouse.com/candyanimals : If you're ordering a large group, this site has some fun candies to choose from. Gummy Octupuses, Gummi Clown Fish, etc.

<http://www.notmartha.org/tomake/hostesssushi> : There are more ideas at this site. Great color photos too.

<http://jas.familyfun.go.com/crafts?page=CraftDisplay&craftid=10096> : Nice instructions and visual including a video if you like.

*K'Lyn Hann, Newberg Public Library, klyn.hann@ci.newberg.or.us
for OYAN's Teen Programing Showcase OLA 2007*