

List of Resources Suggested During Maximizing Partnerships

Oregon Library Association Annual Conference, Eugene, April 19, 2018

Planning for Partnerships:

- Community's University Planning Workbook from Upper Dublin, PA Public Library (see Section 2 & Section 3)
<http://bit.ly/communityuniversityworkbook>
- Appreciative Inquiry
  - Appreciative Inquiry: An Overview
<http://bit.ly/appreciativeinquiryoverview>
  - Key Questions in Appreciative Inquiry
<http://bit.ly/questionsappreciativeinquiry>
  - Call to Action: Appreciative Inquiry Worksheet
<http://bit.ly/appreciativeinquiryworksheet>(scroll to bottom of page)
- Strengthening Nonprofits: Conducting a Community Assessment
<http://bit.ly/nonprofitcommunityassessment>
- Aspen Institute Dialogue on Public Libraries: Library Vision
<http://www.libraryvision.org/>
- Libraries Transforming Communities Step-by-step Guide to "Turning Outward" (includes resources on hosting community conversations)
<http://bit.ly/alaltcguide>

Building Partnerships:

- Future Search
<http://futuresearch.net/>
- SMART goals
  - University of California, SMART Goals: A How To Guide
<http://bit.ly/ucopsmartgoals>
  - How to Write SMART Goals
<http://bit.ly/writingsmartgoals>
- Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) examples

- <http://bit.ly/acfmemorandumofunderstanding>
- <http://bit.ly/chcanysmou>

Frequently Referenced in This Presentation:

- Webjunction: Communication & Partnerships: Tools
<http://bit.ly/webjunctionpartnershiptools>