

Online Safety, Privacy and Ethical Behavior : Resources for Parents, Educators and Young People

*Users of these resources should evaluate the appropriateness of materials on the sites and be aware of sponsorships and developers whose viewpoints might be reflected in the materials provided. Inclusion on this list does not constitute endorsement.

iKeepSafe – Internet Safety Coalition

iKeepSafe is a nonprofit organization promoting internet security, safety and ethics.

<http://www.ikeepsafe.org/educators/>

<http://www.ikeepsafe.org/parents/>

<https://www.facebook.com/iKeepSafe>

Internet Safety – Online Safety for Youth

National Criminal Justice Reference Service

This site has a collection of resources in various formats for use with young people and parents to educate them about ways to behave responsibly online and steps to take to protect privacy.

<https://www.ncjrs.gov/internetsafety/children.html>

Kids.gov

Kids.gov provides resources and learning activities that can be used with elementary and middle school age children. .

<http://kids.usa.gov/online-safety/index.shtml>

Netsmartz

National Center for Missing and Exploited Children

Netsmartz includes resources for children, teens, parents, educators and law enforcement.

<http://kids.usa.gov/online-safety/index.shtml>

OnGuardOnline.gov

Parents can find help with protecting their children while they are online as well as information about online issues that affect adults.

<http://www.onguardonline.gov/topics/protect-kids-online>

School and community educators can find resources here to help educate online users.

<http://www.onguardonline.gov/features/feature-0003-featured-info-educators>

SafeKids

This site has information for parents to learn about internet-related safety issues and includes resources such as a basic online safety contract for elementary age children. It also includes a link to connectsafely.org, a site that focuses on social media and young people.

<http://www.safekids.com>

April 2015

GK Wilker

Prepared for Oregon Library Association Conference Session:

Cybercreeps, Data Miners and Peeping Uncle Sams – Teaching Patrons About Privacy Online

Programs for Use with K-12 Students and Resources for Teachers

Common Sense Media: Digital Citizenship

Digital Bytes for teens, Digital Passport for grades 3-5 and assessment tools are available.
<https://www.common sense media.org/educators/curriculum>

CyberWise CyberCivics

This middle school digital literacy program is designed to help students to become ethical and responsible users of the internet.

<http://www.cyberwise.org/#!/what-is-cyber-civics/c17cu>

Fordham Center on Law and Information Policy

Fordham has developed a teacher training manual as well as lesson plan outlines designed for use with middle school students. Presentation slides for the lessons are also available. Materials link is at the bottom of the page.

<http://law.fordham.edu/center-on-law-and-information-policy/30317.htm>

Fordham University Digital Literacies Collaborative

This program of the Graduate School of Education is designed to provide a way for teachers to work together to improve their own digital literacy skills so that they can improve the digital literacy skills of their students.

<http://www.fordham.edu/info/21079/>

iKeepSafe – Internet Safety Coalition

The iKeepSafe Coalition provides curriculum resources for use with elementary students, middle/high school students and professional development materials for teachers.

<http://www.ikeepsafe.org/educators/>

April 2015
GK Wilker

Prepared for Oregon Library Association Conference Session:
Cybercreeps, Data Miners and Peeping Uncle Sams – Teaching Patrons About Privacy Online