

Apply for a grant from Oregon Humanities

Our Public Program Grant funds humanities programs and events in Oregon that explore challenging questions and strive for just communities. Eligible programming includes community conversations, panel discussions, intercultural events, and more. The maximum award per organization is $10,000. Applications open January 2025.

Our Mini Grant for Rural Libraries enables rural and rural-serving Oregon libraries to create and host humanities events in their own communities. Eligible programming includes community storytelling events, author readings, discussion groups, and more. The maximum award per library is $5,000. Applications open November 2024.

To learn more, sign up for our newsletter at oregonhumanities.org or contact Dawn Smallman at grants@oregonhumanities.org.